Miniature Park to attract tourists

- To be set up on Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway before tourists reach city
- To inform visitors what awaits them on their Mysuru itinerary

Mysuru, Feb.11 (UNI)- The Karnataka State Tourism Development Corporation (KSTDC) has plans to set up a Miniature Park to attract more visitors to tourist spots in Mysuru.

The walk-through park of minuscule models has been planned at a prime location on the Mysuru-Bengaluru National Highway close to the city and the land for the same will be identified soon so that tourists, before seeing the actual attractive sites in Mysuru, could visit the Miniature Park to see what awaits them on their Mysuru itinerary.

Hand-crafted scale models of tourist destinations such as Mysore Palace, Zoo, Chamundi Hill, Brindavan Gardens and a few prominent heritage structures will come up at the Park.

'The Miniature Park will serve as information centre and a tourist attraction," explained H.P. Janardhan, Deputy Director, Tourism Department, Mysuru.

'The Department has already discussed the proposal with Tourism Minister S.R. Mahesh. If the proposal is accepted, then the Department will make a list of models that need to be incorporated in the Park," he added.

One of the reasons why the Department is looking at new proposals for Mysuru was to bring about newness to tourism sector, adding new sites in a bid to encourage tourists to extend their stay here.

The stakeholders' grouse is that tourists were using Mysuru as a transit point with a day's visit and moving to hill stations as the city and its surroundings lacks shows or attractions after dusk.

SERICULTURE MUSEUM

Sericulture Museum is another initiative of Tourism Department and the Department is planning to join hands with Sericulture Department to portray the genesis of silk and how the fabric is produced from silkworms and made into a finished product.

Around 60 percent of raw silk is produced in Karnataka and is most sought after.

Mysore Silk, produced by KSIC, is a prime silk brand and tourists here often buy silk products, especially sarees. To help them understand how silk is produced, the Sericulture Museum has been proposed.

Uproar in LS over BJP's bid to topple coalition Government

Controversial audio clip debated in Assembly; Speaker suggests formation of SIT

New Delhi, Feb.11 (UNI)- The Lok Sabha this morning witnessed uproar over Bharatiya Janata Party's (BJP) alleged bid to topple the coalition Government of Congress and Janata Dal-Secular (JD-S) in Karnataka.

As soon as the Lok Sabha assembled for the day, Congress MP K.C. Venugopal sought Speaker Sumitra Mahajan's permission to speak on the issue of 'Operation Lotus' by the BJP.

He alleged that the efforts to bribe the Congress MLAs in Karnataka was going on and Prime Minister Narendra Modi and BJP President Amit Shah were also purportedly involved in it.

The Speaker did not allow him to speak on the issue. She, however, assured Venugopal, who is also the General Secretary of the All India Congress Committee and in-charge of the party's affairs in Karnataka, that she would allow him to speak on the issue after the Question Hour.

She then started the proceedings of the Question Hour. But the Congress MPs were not ready to relent even after the assurances from the Speaker. Some of the Congress MPs came to the Well of House and started raising slogans denouncing the BJP's effort to topple the Government in Karnataka and protested.

Surfeit of jobs, soaring joblessness

The postulate that the nation's economy in monetary terms continues to be wearing a smile entirely due to sustained index of industrial production marked by unprecedented opportunities to the youth in economically productive age in their quest for jobs with steady salary juxtaposed with soaring unemployment rate on the cusp of 10 percent prompts one to invoke the famous line of the sailor on the high seas saying, 'Water water everywhere but not a drop to drink.' The biggest job staring at the millions of youth, armed with degrees and diplomas in a wide range of subjects of Science, Technology, Commerce, Management and Humanities seems to be the job of landing a job consistent with their academic background. The report based on a recent survey states that nearly 80 percent of employees recruited through campus visits by companies in the corporate sector quit their jobs within a year or two for various personal reasons, despite commanding salaries in amounts that mock at the salaries earned by government employees. According to informed industry circles creating jobs in the formal sector is a bigger problem than paucity of jobs.

Thanks to the initiative taken by youths graduating from reputed institutions, particularly in engineering and technology streams, they have emerged as job-givers instead of job-seekers, having come up as the new-fangled enterprise now familiar to all as Start-Up. The country now reportedly hosts more than 7,000 Start-Ups. The Government mulling tax sops to this newly-emerging sector is likely to attract more youth to become entrepreneurs and thus address the issue of unemployment to whatever extent.

The figures relating to India's employment scenario are frightening, particularly in the light of the numbers sourced to the Government being questioned for their veracity. The Finance Minister, in his budget speech while presenting the 2019-20 budget of the Government of India in the nation's Parliament, announced that processing had began for providing 2,00,000 jobs in the ambit of the Government. Given the feature that only about 15 million people in the country are in organised jobs and also about 10 million job-seekers emerge annually, the dream of people to land jobs in that sector remains unfulfilled eternally. We are hearing about the urgent action to raise the skill levels of the labour force and also reform of the education sector to improve employability, which raises hopes of better days ahead.

The episodes such as evicting self-employed youth in the business of mobile canteens of Mysuru by the civic authorities only aggravates the unemployment problem. The message for the administration from such actions is that the strategy for tackling the problem is to move from the unorganised to the organised, to harness the human resource mass.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The battle of wits between Chhattisgarh journalists and the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) State Unit over the alleged assault of a scribe by party workers last week continues. On Tuesday, local journalists protested in a unique manner. Many attended press briefings by the party wearing helmets meant for two-wheeler riders. One of them also said their new dress code was part of the Patrakar Suraksha Abhiyaan or save journalists campaign. "We will lift the visors when we have to ask a question and lower them back after having spoken," he added.

Masseuse bites her clients for blood circulation

New Jersey: Masseuse Dorothy Stein also known as the back-biting masseuse in New Jersey is in the news because one of her controversial technique involves biting her clients to "tenderise" their muscle and promote blood circulation.

Stein was encouraged to use her teeth as a massage tool by her mother, at a very young age. She was only five when her mom asked her to give her a massage for the first time. However, her hands weren't strong enough at the time, so her mother asked her to bite her instead. It apparently worked, because over four decades later, Dorothy Stein is still using her chompers to tenderise her clients' muscles and promote blood circulation.

In the early 80's she started offering free massages to popular bands backstage, and that's how she made a name for herself. Def Lepard and The Rolling Stones were among her first clients, and even though she didn't charge anything, she was able to build an important network of contacts.

Conman told to spend 20 years in solitary

Florida: One of Florida's most notorious conmen Jimmy Sabatino, was recently convicted to 20 years of solitary confinement, after pleading guilty to running a $10.4 million (USD) fraud. He was in prison at the time, but managed to run a successful racket with the help of associates outside. During his trial, Sabatino told the Judge that he cannot stop from committing crimes and requested to be sentenced to solitary confinement. He claims that the lack of human contact is the only thing that can stop him from conning people.

Sabatino has spent most of his life since age 19 behind bars,. He was serving a sentence at in Miami for violating the terms in 2014, when he came up with an idea of another con, from inside the prison. He convinced two correction officers at the detention center to smuggle five mobile phones for him, which he used to call victims and associates on the outside.

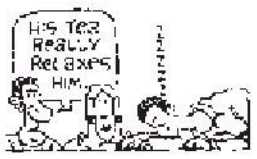
What given green tea its relaxing quality?



A special amino acid called theanine is thought to give green tea its calming qualities. Its "power" comes from epigallogatechin gallate, "EGCG" for short. EGCG is a flavonol that crosses the blood-brain barrier, improving cognitive function.

Music Concert on Feb.16

Mysuru, Feb.11- Gayana Sabha, Mysuru, has organised a Hindustani Classical Music Concert by A.K. Gurudutt, disciple of Pt. Ajoy Chakrabarty, on Feb. 16 at 6.15 pm at 'Kalpa Kshetra,' No. 58111, Vijayanagar 4th Stage. He will be accompanied on tabla by Pt. Ramesh Dhannur and on harmonium by Vighnesh Bhagwat.

A.K. Gurudutt

Profile: Born in a traditional family of great Sanskrit scholars and musicians revered by the Kings of Mysore, Gurudutt's great-grandfathers, both paternal and maternal, were acclaimed flautists of that era. His grandfathers, Chilkunda Brothers, are a household name across Karnataka while his cocks, too, are highly accomplished flautists.

At the tender age of dour, his mother C. N. Annapurna initiated him into Karnatak vocal music.

Soon, he also started training under his uncle A.K. Viswanath, a great poet, flautist, and composer, in playing bamboo flute in Karnatak style, which continued for two decades.

Later Gurudutt developed a great desire to learn Hindustani vocal music and started training under Geetha Bhat from Dharwad, a disciple of Pandit M. G. Patwardhan from the lineage of Gayanacharya Pandit Gururao Deshpande.

In 2013, Gurudutt became part of the lineage of stalwarts like Ustad Bade Ghulam Ali Khan and Padma Bhushan Deshikottam Pandit Jnan Prakash Ghosh when he came under the tutelage of Sangeet Samrat Padma Shri Pandit Ajoy Chakrabarty, in the Guru-Shishya parampara.

Presently he is staying at Kolkata under the care and guidance of Panditji undergoing extensive training and traveling across the country with him. His versatility in presenting Khayal, Thumri, Marathi Abhang, Kannada Dann Pada, Hindi songs of Tulsidas and Bengali Rabindra Sangeet - with equal ease - is noteworthy.

A "Yuvavani" (Karnatak flute) and "B grade" (Hindustani vocal) artist of All India Radio, Bangalore, Gurudutt was appreciated through many awards including "Yuva Pratibhe" by Government of Karnataka, "Mr. Virtuoso" and "Mr. Voice" by Carnatica and a Gold Medal by KLE group of institutions for the best performance in Karnatak flute music.

Gurudutt holds BBM degree from Bangalore University and PGDM from AIMA, Delhi, both with distinction.

- African slaves that were brought in Brazil 300-400 years ago were prohibited from practicing martial arts. Therefore, they developed the mix of dancing and fighting that is known today as Capoeira.

Aadhaar deactivation !?

Sir,

I would like to draw the attention of the authorities concerned regarding a report about deactivation of Aadhaar for not using it over a certain period of time.

The news — elsewhere — regarding Aadhaar number getting deactivated if it remains unused for a period of three years can do nothing but give a shock to the public in general. The fundamental problem here is that unlike credit/debit cards or internet banking, Aadhaar card does not find a place in day-to-day activities of most of the people. Such deactivation can take place only on the death of the holder than otherwise.

If reports about Aadhaar getting deactivated are true, it is called upon the concerned to set right the error, if any, and free the citizens from the stress of such a situation.

Development at what cost?

Sir,

We the residents of Bannimantap C Layout have been put into a lot of inconvenience due to haphazard road digging, widening and new water connections going on from the past year and a half.

To add to the misery they have now dug up the roads, damaged water pipes, snapped our telephone cables and piled up debris beside our house and we are unable to remove our cars, scooters etc., from the past 15 days from our house portico. We can neither park the vehicles outside the house.

Our repeated pleas to the authorities concerned have fallen on deaf ears. No engineers, no contractors, no Corporator no one listens. After seeing the pictures, we wish the authorities concerned will wake up and act immediately.

Season's first rainy spell surprises city

Mysuru, Feb.11 (SPN&BCT)- Heavy rain accompanied by thunder and lightning lashed Mysuru and surrounding areas last night in what was the first spell of rain of the year. The downpour continued for about half-an-hour and in some areas, it rained for more than one-and-a-half hours.

Heavy rain was witnessed in the heart of the city like Mysore Palace, K.R. Circle, Vidyaranyapuram, Ramakrishnanagar, Sharadadevinagar, Bogadi Second Stage, Raghavendra Nagar, Agrahara, N.R. Mohalla, Vijayanagar, Jayalakshmipuram, Mahadeshwara Layout, Chamundipuram, Yadavagiri, Saraswathipuram, Lakshmipuram, Chamarajapuram, Hebbal, Brindavan Extension and surrounding areas. Vehicles navigated through the flooded road following heavy showers.

Before the rain brought down the temperature, searing heat prevailed in the atmosphere that led to gradual building up of clouds, resulting in rain at around 7.15 pm. The light drizzle turned into a downpour within minutes and had many on the streets running for cover.

Drainages and storm water drains overflowed at several low-lying areas and the rains caught the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) authorities by surprise. A huge tree fell on a car (KA-09 P-7554) that was parked near Uttaradhi Mutt at Agrahara.

The heavy shower helped bring the temperature down considerably. The day time temperature on Sunday had reached a maximum of 32.8°Celsius which was 2°C above normal, according to Indian Meteorological Department.

Weather experts attributed the rain ranging from moderate to heavy rainfall to formation of a trough over the peninsular region. According to meteorologists, the cloudy weather conditions with light to a moderate spell of rains likely to continue till Monday (Feb.11).

"The sudden rain is due to the formation of a trough extending from Tamil Nadu to Telangana including parts of South interior Karnataka districts. This has resulted in thundershowers along with squally winds in certain pockets of the region. The situation is likely to continue till Monday. While it is common to witness hot and humid day, it is likely to cause downpour towards evening," explained Dr. G.S. Sreenivasa Reddy, Director of Karnataka State Natural Disaster Monitoring Centre.

The prevailing situation has resulted in bringing down the day temperature by a couple of degrees Celsius in the last two days. "What was used to be 32 and 33-degrees centigrade has come down to 29 and 30 degrees Centigrade," Dr. Reddy said.

The sudden showers, while bringing down temperatures, have also triggered worries among farming communities in the region. The mango crop which had begun to bloom is reportedly hit severely by the rains. Several trees in some of these taluks were uprooted due to heavy winds and downpour.

Mysuru, Feb.11- The Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha (KRRS) and Hasiru Sene has plunged into crisis once again, with Pachhe Nanjundaswamy, son of late Prof. M.D. Nanjundaswamy, popularly known as MDN among his followers, announcing the expulsion of Badagalapura Nagendra from the post of President and office-bearers Hosakote Basavaraj and Hosur Kumar, for violation of Sangha rules.

Addressing a press meet here yesterday, Pachhe Nanjundaswamy alleged that the trio, at a recent press meet had announced the removal of Vidyasagar, a farmer leader of Nanjangud, from the KRRS, without even issuing a show-cause notice to him.

As the other members expressed severe opposition to the move of the trio, the KRRS has expelled Nagendra, Hosakote Basavaraj and Hosur Kumar.

Pointing out that the trio has been expelled from the Primary membership of KRRS, Pachhe Nanjundaswamy maintained that barring the KRRS, that is duly registered with the Government, the other factions associated with the Sangha are just on paper.

Stating that strict action will be taken against those who attempt to create discord in the organisation, he announced that B.A. Lakshminarayana Gowda has been appointed as the new KRRS President and Vidyasagar, the President of Mysuru district unit.

Raghu has been appointed as KRRS General Secretary and K.G. Shivaprasad as the Honorary President, he added.

Pachhe Nanjundaswamy further said that as part of Prof. M.D. Nanjundaswamy's birth anniversary, 'Raithotsava' a State-level gathering of farmers will be held at Freedom Park in Bengaluru on Feb. 13, in which over 40,000 farmers are expected to take part.

Meanwhile, Badgalapura Nagendra reacting to his expulsion, claimed that his expulsion was ridiculous.

Maintaining that Pachhe Nanjundaswamy is neither an office-bearer or a primary member of the KRRS, Nagendra wondered how Pachhe can expel him from the organisation.

Alleging that Pachhe stayed away from the organisation intentionally, Nagendra accused him of choosing a wrong path to get hold of the organisation, which has been fighting for the cause of farmers for nearly four decades.

Riot of colours at SOM Edu Fair painting competition

Mysuru, Feb. 11 (MTY&KS)- In one of the largest events of its kind in city, a large number of children from different schools in city participated in the Drawing and Painting Contest, organised on the last day of Star of Mysore Education Fair at Maharaja's College Grounds here yesterday which was held in an atmosphere filled with extreme enthusiasm.

Hundreds of students from classes KG to X took part in the competition that was conducted in three categories: 4 to 8 years, 9 to 12 years and 13 to 18 years. The competition was also held for parents.

While the students between 6 and 8 years drew cartoons and filled colours, others used their imagination to create wonderful drawings and paintings which was held from 12.30 pm to 1.30.

Drawing sheets were provided by the organisers and a time limit of one hour was given to the participants to complete their drawing and painting. While many students had registered themselves for the competition since two days, some others registered their names on the spot and took part in the competition with encouragement from their parents.

A success in first attempt, says Sudhakar S. Shetty

Mysuru, Feb. 11 (SBD&KS)- "Organising an education fair is not easy, it is a big challenge, but Star of Mysore Education Fair was a big success in the first attempt itself," said FKCCI President Sudhakar S. Shetty.

He was speaking after picking up the winners through lucky dip on the concluding day of SOM Edu fair last evening.

He said that there would be no hiccups if one is brave to do good works and Star of Mysore Education Fair is an example for it and lauded Star of Mysore Managing Editor Vikram Muthanna for organising the Edu Fair which benefited thousands of children and parents.

He further said that the role of parents is very important in shaping the future of their children and added that this responsibility should not be given completely to teachers.

Stating that there were more than 20 crore people addicted to WhatsApp which is reducing the memory power, he said that awareness should be created among children about the over use of technology besides suggesting that more time should be given to discussions pertaining to education.

"Children are the future of the country. We should guide them in the correct path and provide education to make them stand on their own feet. If we do not correct their mistakes and provide them knowledge, we are destroying their future. This Edu Fair was also useful for teachers," Sudhakar S. Shetty said.

Stating that he would not get sleep if he doesn't read Star of Mysore as he is addicted to it, Sudhakar Shetty said that Mysooru Mithra, the sister concern of Star of Mysore was loved by all besides stating that Star of Mysore Editor-in-Chief K.B. Ganapathy points out the ills of the society and mismanagement in the administration directly and fearlessly.

Walking on the path of his father, Sudhakar Shetty said that Vikram Muthanna was successful in his new venture in the field related to education in his first attempt.

Probe Committee Chairperson Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath holding the first meeting at Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Council Hall in city this morning. MCC Council Secretary R. Rangaswamy, Deputy Mayor Shafi Ahamed, Former Mayor Ayub Khan, MCC Opposition leader B.V. Manjunath others look on.

Mysuru, Feb.11 (RK&SR)- A Probe Committee constituted by Mysore City Corporation (MCC) headed by Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath in connection with MG Road Double Billing Scam where Rs.1.4 crore was reportedly siphoned off by submitting two bills for the same work, held its first meeting at MCC Council Hall this morning.

It may be recalled here that MCC had constituted this Committee on Feb.6 comprising MCC Council Secretary R. Rangaswamy as its member secretary. While Deputy Mayor Shafi Ahamed, PWD Superintending Engineer K.V. Prakash, MCC Works Standing Committee Chairperson Lakshmi, Ruling Party leader H.M. Shanthakumari, MCC members Ayub Khan, Prema of Janata Dal (Secular), Ward 47 Corporator Shivakumar, Ward 55 Corporator M.V. Ramprasad as members of the Committee.

The MCC had constituted this Committee as the leader of Opposition B.V. Manjunath raised allegations over this issue at the MCC Council meeting held on Jan.30 and demanded a detailed probe in this regard. .

Today, the probe Committee held its first meeting in presence of complainant B.V. Manjunath and MCC Assistant Executive Engineer Sunil Babu, MCC Zone 1 Office Junior Engineer M.N. Mohanakumari and contractor Karigowda who are in the dock for alleged misappropriation.

Manjunath presented photos, papers, videos, details of grants received by the government, other documents and records related to the scam to defend his allegations before the Committee.

At the same time, the Committee had also collected the details and other records from the accused. The meeting will discuss this issue threadbare till this evening according to sources. The Committee is expected to present this report in the next Council meeting and a final decision to recommend the action against the alleged guilty officers will be taken only after this meeting. The Committee can only recommend action against the guilty to the government and it has no punitive powers.

Senior officials of MCC led by Executive Engineer Ramakrishna had inspected the MG Road recently from District Court Complex to Siddappa Square focussing on the asphalting work, covering the length and width of asphalted portion, quantity of materials used, equipment used for the job and the quality of the asphalt.

They also examined median parameters and concrete blocks used for the purpose and collected information meticulously and methodically documented them.

The MPs of the Telugu Desam Party and All India Trinamool Congress also came to the well of the House. They also raised slogans and waved placards slamming Prime Minister Narendra Modi's government on various issues. After continuing with the Question Hour for sometime, the Speaker adjourned the House for an hour.

Debate in the Assembly

Meanwhile, at the Assembly in Karnataka, Congress Legislature Party leader Siddharamaiah was set to move for disqualification of four MLAs mostly during lunch break of the Assembly session. Siddharamaiah met Speaker K.R. Ramesh Kumar and has sought time.

The Assembly session began at 11.30 am with Speaker Ramesh Kumar addressing the session: "Our every move and action should be responsible. But unfortunately, the clip refers specifically to my name."

He was referring to the audio clip released by Chief Minister HD Kumaraswamy last Friday to expose the BJP's alleged attempts to lure a JD(S) MLA with the promise of money and position. In the alleged audio recordings of Yeddyurappa's conversation with a JD(S) MLA's son, the former is heard offering money and position to JD(S) MLAs, claiming that his party top brass will manage the speaker and the higher judiciary.

"Speaker is the custodian of the House. People are watching us. I've spent two nights in distress. I left home and went to Raichur to distract myself from the pain," said Ramesh Kumar. "I request the House. You chose me unanimously. Never have I acted in a manner unbecoming of me," he said.

"My apprehension is that someone who is a member of this House is in the audio clip casting aspersions on me," said an emotional Speaker, also remembering his late mother.

Later, the Speaker advised the government to constitute a Special Investigation Team (SIT) to look into the controversial audio clip.

"I'm not directing you. I'm advising the CM to form a SIT and ascertain the truth on who said it, why it was said and whether it really happened," Kumar said on the floor of the House, after a detailed discussion on the audio clip in which it is alleged that the Speaker was bribed to accept resignations of disgruntled MLAs. Kumar has asked the government to submit a report in 15 days and "give me respite."

Demand for Cauvery Taluk formation

Kushalnagar bandh total, peaceful

Kushalnagar, Feb. 11 (AG&BCT)- The Kushalnagar bandh called today by Cauvery Taluk Horata Kendriya Samiti demanding the formation of Cauvery Taluk with Kushalnagar as its headquarters, was total and peaceful.

As part of the bandh, schools, colleges and all other educational institutions in the town and 19 Gram Panchayats falling under Kushalnagar limits were closed for the day. Also, commercial establishments, petrol bunks and other business enterprises remained closed as the Kushalnagar Chamber of Commerce supported the bandh call. Private buses, taxis, cabs, autos, vans and other public transport vehicles were off the roads.

However, the KSRTC service was not disrupted as the Police prevented the protesters from stopping the service. Buses moved freely towards Bengaluru, Mysuru, Madikeri, Somwarpet and surrounding areas. Only a few of the buses had to face traffic jams as protesters squatted on the roads.

Hundreds of protesters from Kushalnagar and surrounding villages blocked the ever-busy Mysuru-Madikeri Highway at Koppa Gate and the Police counselled the protesters to allow vehicles to ply on the road.

Many associations and organisations, including Taxi & Auto Unions, Private Bus Owners Association had extended full support to the bandh called for formation of Cauvery Taluk. There were no untoward incidents reported from anywhere in Kushalnagar Hobli limits.

Samiti President V.P. Shashidhar, Kushalnagar Chamber of Commerce President Amrit Raj led the protesters. In the evening, a procession will be taken out demanding the taluk formation from Koppa Gate and the procession will pass through the main thoroughfares of the city.

The demand for a separate Cauvery Taluk with headquarters at Kushalnagar has been growing over the years since residents find travelling 27km to Somwarpet to get their work done to be a waste of time.

Following the neglect from the State Government, members of various pro-people organisations formed Cauvery Taluk Horata Samithi under the presidentship of former ZP member V.P. Shashidhar. The committee even prepared the map of new Cauvery Taluk comprising 19 Gram Panchayat areas and formed village committees.

I was elected KRRS President at the organisation's Executive Committee meeting: Badagalapura Nagendra

Badagalapura Nagendra addressing a press meet at Jaladarshini Guest House in city this morning.

Mysuru, Feb.11(PM&DM)- Maintaining that he was officially declared President of KRRS (Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha) and Hasiru Sene at the KRRS State Executive Committee Meeting held at Chitradurga recently, Badagalapura Nagendra has lashed out at Pachhe Nanjundaswamy accusing him of making self declarations concerning the KRRS.

Addressing a press meet at Jaladarshini Guest House here this morning, Nagendra alleged that JD(S) supremo H.D. Deve Gowda's family may be behind the divisions in the KRRS, as the KRRS is the main political rival of the JD(S) in old Mysuru region.

Accusing Pachhe Nanjundaswamy of acting at the behest of forces that are out to finish off KRRS, Nagendra claimed that Pachhe was not even a KRRS member to expel him (Nagendra) from the farmer organisation.

Stating that Pachhe had never bothered to shoulder responsibility of the youth wing of the KRRS, Nagendra said that he was surprised when pachhe demanded the KRRS Vice-President's post a couple of months ago.

Maintaining that Pachhe was then told that appointment to all posts would be as per the KRRS norms and regulation, Nagendra alleged that a dejected Pachhe then joined hands with those who were trying to finish off the KRRS.

Referring to the allegation by Cheeranahalli Srinivas of Pachhe Nanjundaswamy faction who had accused him of receiving Rs. 3 crore as commission in Mandakalli land acquisition, Nagendra said that those who have made allegations against him were not KRRS members in the first place.

Asking his detractors not to make baseless allegations against him. Nagendra urged them to come up with records in support of their claims.

Nagendra announced that the KRRS will be holding a programme in commemoration of KRRS founder late Prof.M.D. Nanjundaswamy at Ambedkar Bhavan, Vasanthanagar in Bengaluru at 11am on Feb.13, where agrarian issues, farm crisis and other agri-issues will be debated in detail.

Farmer leaders Lokesh Raje Urs, Hosur Kumar, Hoskote Basavaraju, P. Marankaiah, Netravathi and others were present.

Holistic Education
in pristine environment

THE LEARNING CURVE INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

A truly international school with a global perspective, The learning curve believes in education through practical knowledge.

Started in 2006, The learning curve has the unique distinction of being the first truly international school in Mysore that imparts education in the IGCSE syllabus.

Lovingly called TLC by teachers and students, the school is unique for what it provides the students—TLC or tender loving care. A beautiful campus that exudes positive energy, small classroom size that ensures each student gets individual attention and a curriculum that provides holistic education, all of which make The learning curve a unique school in the city. A truly international school with a global perspective, there are students from about 15 different countries studying here.

The global curriculum followed at the school builds skills like critical as well as conceptual and creative thinking. The curriculum also gives international exposure to students and makes it easier for students to get admission at universities—both national and international.

Considered one of the best international schools in the country with a high number of "Edexcel High Achiever" awardees, The learning curve imparts an individualised approach to student learning to ensure that all students are challenged and successful. The core value in TLC is to encourage each student to discover the intrinsic joy of learning and provide a purposeful effort to achieve high academic standards.

Here, learning happens through activities and field trips. Children are initiated into the curriculum with ease and comfort.
